GET TO KNOW OUR SEMINARIANS:

Nathan Thompson DOB is March 8, 2002.

Nathan's parents are Sarah and Gary Thompson. He attends Simon Brute Seminary at Marian University where he is currently a Freshman. He will graduate with a degree in Catholic Studies and a minor in History.

Nathan's favorite saint is St Michael the Archangel because he is an amazing model for priests as the guardian of the church and is a powerful intercessor. His favorite course this year was Philosophy. Nathan says it works well with how he thinks and it tests his thoughts well.

Nathan's favorite food is the hamburger. His hobbies are playing soccer and watching TV with his brother seminarians as well as videogames and go to the gym. We ask Nathan what inspired him to enter the Seminary and study to be a priest; I had been discerning since middle school but put it off during high school. Seeing younger priests like Fr. Jerry who I could relate to and realize he is a normal guy like me made me realize that it was certainly a possibility. So having a continual push from the holy spirit and a real understanding that it is a possibility I realized it was where I was supposed to be.
